"BIZ."

The Alden Fruit and Taro Company have been doing a rushing business since their removal to their new quarters on Fort street. During the past week Two Thousand persons, among whom were some of the most prominent ladies in Honolulu, have called at the Company's office to witness the making of poi, muffins, hot cakes, etc., out of the celebrated Taro Flour. Remember, No. 125 Fort street, three doors above the Shooting Gallery.

LOCAL NEWS.

H. Hastie was a passenger for the Coast by the Australia yesterday.

The best California table wines can be had at Hamilton Johnson's Queen street store.

Mons. Chisbourn and Mons. Casenarro were passengers for the Volcano by the steamer W. G. Hall yesterday.

The building occupied by the Pacific Hardware Co., on Fort street, is being repaired, the foundations having been found unsafe.

A new restaurant will shortly be opened in the store opposite the Pantheon saloon, on Fort street. The new enterprise will be conducted by Harry Bing.

By a mistake the name of R. Father Bonaventura was signed to an article on the Volcano, which appeared in yesterday's Press. The signature should have read "F. Father Bonaventura."

Mr. W. M. Graham has resigned the position of manager of the Hawaiian Hotel to accept a position with G. W. Macfarlane & Co. Mr. Bartlett succeeds Mr. Graham as manager of the Hotel.

Among the notable passengers who left by the Australia yesterday were Mr. T. H. Davies and family, J. H. Paty and wife, Hon. G. Rhodes and wife, Hon. H. A. Widemann, and many others.

Captain J. Waterbury, U. S. A., and wife, who arrived here by the brigantine W. G. Irwin, after a pleasant sojourn in Honolulu, left for San Francisco by the steamer Australia yesterday afternoon.

Mr. F. Horn, proprietor of the Pioneer Steam Candy Factory, announces that, as soon as needed appliances arrive, he will be ready to serve the public with creams, fruit and water ices such as have never been seen in Honolulu.

The steamer C. R. Bishop brings the news of the drowning of a native woman at Paauhau, Hawaii, last Sunday. The woman was fishing from the rocks, when a large wave swept over the rock on which she was standing, and before assistance could be rendered she was drowned.

Order of the Day.

Consideration of the Appropriation Bill. Second reading of an act amending Section 3 of Session Laws of 1884. Second reading of an act extending the time of sitting of commissioners of private ways and water rights. Second reading of an act to provide a permanent settlement for T. W. Everett.

Evangelical Association.

The programme of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association for to-day will be as follows: The Association will meet at nine o'clock in the morning; the annual examination of Kawaihau Girls' School will take place at Kawaihau Church at half past one o'clock in the afternoon; the Y. P. C. General Association will meet at Kaunakakai Church at seven o'clock in the evening.

Saturday's Event.

It is superfluous to make further comment upon the excellent entertainment provided by Messrs. Emmet and Branscombe for Saturday night next, further than to state that the box plan, although only opened yesterday morning, is rapidly filling up; we therefore advise all those who wish to procure a good seat, to pay a visit to Mr. Wiseman's office at their earliest convenience. All seem to be of the opinion that there will be a bumper house, and that everyone will go away satisfied that they have witnessed one of the most varied and enjoyable entertainments ever given in Honolulu.

Departure of the Australia.

The departure of the Royal Hawaiian Steamship Australia yesterday afternoon for San Francisco, was witnessed by as large a number of our citizens gathered upon the dock as has ever been seen on a like occasion. The decks of the noble ship were crowded with those who were going away, and the many friends who thronged on board to bid them goodbye, and "God speed." As is customary on such occasions, there was plenty of bright bouquets and green loading the hands and decking the shoulders of Kaamania leaving the Islands for a while. The royal Hawaiian Band played several appropriate pieces, and the members sang a farewell song.

His Majesty the King went on board accompanied by the Vice Chamberlain, Major Purvis, and bid good-bye to Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Turton, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Paty, and others outward bound. The hour for departure arrived, and as soon as the crowd who were not going could be separated from those who were, the mail bags hurried on board and the inevitable "last man" dropped ashore, the steamer swung out into the stream and to the sound of national anthems—English, American and Hawaiian—steamed slowly out of the harbor and was gone.

They Say:

That the member from Molokai has gained nothing by attacking the editor of this paper; that the debate in the Legislature for the last two days if printed in single column would reach to Waikiki; that the weather remains pleasant in spite of the thunder clouds raised in the House; that the sprinkling cart always has the right of way; that the lobby was well-filled yesterday during speech-making time; that the vote of 22 to 7 is rather conclusive that the Legislature does not consider it an apology; that it is somewhat in the S. F. Chronicle style of journalism and rather dangerous to purloin reports from the printer's hands in order to comment thereon; that a breach of confidence should never be made by an honorable enemy; that the Assembly received an invitation yesterday to visit the examination of the Kawaihau Girls' school this afternoon; that some of the Chinese complain that they have been tricked in insurance matters; that the Honolulu Rifles are increasing in numbers; that the people who have planted chili seeds this year already have sprouted plants; that the next move of the Jockey Club ought to be to put the race taken off upon the programme again; that the steamer Zealandia will be in port on time from San Francisco; that there will be a tea party held at the Fort-street Church to-morrow afternoon at one o'clock; that there will be rhetorical exercises given in Kawaihau Church next Saturday evening at half-past seven o'clock; that the ice cream season lasts all the year round in Honolulu; that the next movement in the "apology case" will be another motion; that the people are obliged to raise their houses on some streets in order to follow the grade established by the Road Supervisor; that the methods of some of the politicians are very funny; that political letter writing is becoming a dangerous sport in Honolulu; that a large crowd gathered on the Oceanic wharf to witness the departure of the Australia; that a funny little incident occurred on board just before she sailed; that some people would say the said incident was very naughty—but its niece; that an "Uncle Harris" will soon hang out the renowned three gold balls in Honolulu; that he will be warmly welcomed by some people; and that Captain Lee's smiling face is again seen on our street.

J. H. BROWN.

Agent Board of Health.

The famous cedars of Lebanon are taken care of by the authorities. There are 397 of them—twenty-one more than in 1876, and 373 more than in 1873, when they were counted by the German botanist, Ramvolff.

Hawaiian Poi Song.

(Suggested after eating a calabash of Poi made out of Taro Flour.)

Oh! food nutritious,
Oh! food delicious,
To thee, my muse shall sing,
I'll have no hash
In my calabash;
Unfit for queen and king.

Chorus. Taro, Taro,
Thou art my bone and marrow,
Poi, Poi,
Thou art my life, my joy.

With diligence
I made my fence,
Inclosing all my farm.
With Taro I set
In soil quite wet
And keep from any harm.

The tropic sun
In joyous fun
Comes dancing down on thee,
I lay like sloth
And watch thy growth,
Till ripened thou mayst be.

I raise thee then
From out this pen
To cleanse and trim thee fine.
Is raised pot
I put the lot
And boil thee for a time.

I thee then mash
In clean calabash
With water and savor and spice,
Then to my joy
For this is Poi
I taste and find 'tis nice.

Delicious food
For my young brood
To grow and thrive and fat on,
The young rogues come
Full on the run
And always eat with hot on.

In ring we squat,
Around our pot,
To take our fine repast.
With hungry haste
We seek to taste
Each fearing he'll be last.

With dextrous turn,
From pot or urn,
We raise our "natural spoon."
Then, without lips,
Resounding sips,
We clear it very soon.

'Twas thus did ate
Our Potentate,
Our King of long ago.
Then why should we Feel less than he
When eating poi so.

American
Or any man,
May do as he may choose.
But, as for me,
I ne'er could see
Why they the Poi refuse.

Let others think
Or even blink,
At what I've said of Poi.
But I maintain
Forever the same,
It is my living joy.

The best of Poi
I here do "say."
Is made of TARO FLOUR,
And when 'tis done,
It is great fun,
To eat it by the hour.

CALIFORNIA WINES.

The growth and manufacture of pure wines in California has surprised the most sanguine. Although small manufacturers, through combined ignorance and carelessness, turn out inferior wines, it has been the ambition of to manufacture wines that are absolutely pure, and the only house in California that manufactures pure Champagnes produced by the natural process of fermentation in the bottle.

Messrs. Arpad Haraszthy & Co.

The importation of MESSRS. ARPAD HARASZTHY & CO'S wines into this Kingdom, from October 7th, 1885, to March 31st, 1886, being nearly two-thirds of all other manufactures put together, is a guaranty of their popularity, and that they are far superior to any wines manufactured.
